

March 11, 1938.

My dear Governor:

Before leaving for a short Florida visit, I am eager to assure you of my appreciation of your thoughtful note of March 6th, and I want to tell you how sorry I am to know of the trials and tribulations to which you have been subjected. I certainly hope, and I am sure every member of the Board will agree with me, that you will lay aside any cares of your office and devote yourself exclusively to the task of recuperation.

Mrs. Eccles joins me in extending to you and Mrs. Hamlin every good wish and our earnest hopes for your speedy restoration.

Sincerely yours,

Honorable Charles S. Hamlin,
The Hay Adams,

Mrs. Charles S. Hamlin
The Hay Adams

Dear Governor Eccles.

I know that you will be glad to learn that my troubles are slowly clearing up. I had to have an X-ray in November for a spot
on my inner cheek
but unfortunately
they have not yet

developed any way to protect the rest of the Mouth from the burn
and so I have had to suffer torture for weeks with a severely burned tongue &
other burns.

My work as to the history of the Board has not ended nevertheless as I had collected a mass of material which has kept my secretary busy. I expect to be back shortly in the office. With our kind regards to Mrs. Eccles.
Sincerely Yours, Charles S. Hamlin.
