Mr. Marriner S. Eccles
Chairman
Board of Governors
Federal Reserve System
Washington 25, D. C.

My dear Marriner:

As you know, Judge John Caskie Collet of this city has recently been appointed Director of Economic Stabilization, and I understand will shortly begin that position with offices in the Federal Reserve Building. He is an able, interesting person, and I am sure you will enjoy his acquaintance. I hope you will take occasion to contact him and give him such cooperation as opportunity may afford.

I am expecting to be at the Chairmen's Meeting on October 29th and will see you then.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Bob:

This is to thank you for your letter of October 2 with reference to Judge Collet, whose acquaintance I had made just before your letter arrived. I am very glad to have your high estimate of him. He is, as you know, taking over a very heavy and difficult responsibility.

I shall look forward to seeing you at the Chairmen's Conference.

With best regards,

Sincerely yours,

Mr. R. B. Caldwell, Chairman,
