

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF KANSAS CITY

GEO. H. HAMILTON
GOVERNOR

September 9, 1935

Mr. Lawrence Clayton
Assistant to the Governor
Federal Reserve Board
Washington, D. C.

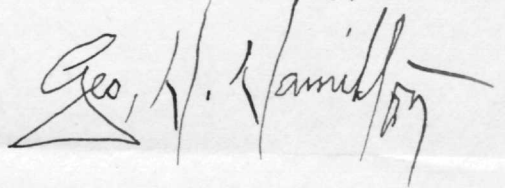

Dear Mr. Clayton:

When you were here I failed to find out where Governor Eccles could be reached, and I would appreciate your giving me his address at your earliest convenience.

Our board of directors meet with the directors of the branch at Denver on September 19, and that might be a convenient time for Governor Eccles to meet with us all. In any event, I desire to urge that he stop in Kansas City enroute to Washington, as we would like to have him look over our plant, meet our directors, and if he has no objections have luncheon or dinner with some of our bankers.

We enjoyed your brief visit with us and hope you will find occasion to drop in on us more frequently.

Yours sincerely,

Mr. G. H. Hamilton, Governor,
Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City, Missouri.

Dear Governor Hamilton:

Replying to yours of September 9th, Governor Eccles can be reached in care of the Eccles Investment Company, Ogden Utah. While I doubt that he will be coming back this way as early as September 19th, it might be you could interest him in flying over to Denver from Salt Lake City, which would only be a matter of three or four hours.

I enjoyed my visit at your bank and city very much and hope to have the opportunity again before long. Please remember me to Mr. Helm who was so kind to me while there.

Yours sincerely,

(Signed) Lawrence Clayton

Lawrence Clayton,
Assistant to the Chairman.
