COMMITTEE ON
EXPENDITURES IN THE EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS

Claypool Hotel # 208
Indianapolis, Indiana

October 8th, 1936

Dear Mr. Chairman:

I take much pleasure in joining in the recommendation of the Honorable James K. Vardaman Jr., to fill the vacancy on the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve Bank.

Mr. Vardaman is eminently qualified to fill this position and if given the opportunity will do credit to himself and this trust.

Trusting his application will receive favorable consideration, I beg to remain,

Most respectfully,

Frederick Van Nuy

FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM
WASHINGTON, D. C.

October 12, 1936.

Honorable Frederick Van Nuys,
Claypool Hotel, #208,
Indianapolis, Indiana.

My dear Senator Van Nuys:

This is to acknowledge your letter of
October 8th recommending Mr. James K. Vardeman,
Jr. to fill the vacancy on this Board.

As you know, the appointment of members to this board is entirely the President's prerogative but I shall be glad to bear your recommendation in mind in the event that I am called upon in this connection.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.
