Memphis, Tennessee.

Dear Ed:

This will acknowledge receipt of yours of the seventh, regarding Mr. James K. Vardaman to fill the vacancy on the Federal Reserve Board of Saint Louis.

I don't believe, Ed, that anything will be done on this place for some time, or that the President will make up his mind concerning it until he returns from his trip. You may feel sure, though, that I will see your interest is brought to his attention.

I hope to see you very soon in Washington.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Jim:

I wish to speak a good word for James K. Vardaman, of St. Louis, to fill the vacancy of Mr. Morrison, of Texas, on the Federal Reserve Board of St. Louis.

Mr. Vardaman is a banker of wide experience and for several years past Manager of the St. Louis Agency of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

I realize you have a million things to do before your departure. If you haven't the time to give this any thought please have someone write me whom to contact.

You did great work and richly deserve a joyous vacation.

With best wishes, I am

Your friend,

EHC:F
