

March 6, 1947.

Dear Mr. von Windegger:

Thank you for sending me the copy of your personal note of February 26 to John Snyder. I was very much pleased with it.

With best regards,

Sincerely yours,

Mr. F. R. von Windegger,
President,
The Plaza Bank of St. Louis,
St. Louis, Missouri.

PERSONAL

Dear John:

I have just read in Pratt's Letter of February 22, "Cooperation between the Treasury and Federal Reserve is excellent. Vardaman has pushed Eccles and Snyder closer together in a mutual protective society." This is all to the good, and tickled me no end. Jake just cannot help over-playing his hand.

Sincerely,

F. R. von Windegger
