FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF MINNEAPOLIS

OFFICE OF
THE PRESIDENT

November 18, 1946

Mr. Elliott Thurston
Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Elliott:

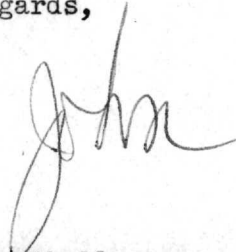

He who gave birth to "Godfandamntastic" still looks healthy and well, so I assume the creative labor period involved has left no permanent impairment which might leave him sexually ineffectual. I had not known he was pregnant until I got your letter. If he had always been so uninhibited and direct in his thinking, he might still have been with us.

Having never enjoyed the priceless privilege of a Brown education, I had to resort to interlinear trots and trigonometry formulas to reduce his double talk to ordinary confusion.

Governor Vardaman and his wife visited us recently. She is both charming and vivacious and left a very pleasant impression.

I'll be seeing you.

Regards,

P.S. Your notation regarding the football score was the first intimation I had that Brown enjoyed a football team this year.
