

March 31, 1942

Chairman Eccles

L. M. Piser

The material that has been given to you, other than that specifically requested by you, is as follows:

Market reports (daily at noon and 3 PM)

Market memoranda (daily at close)

Appreciation or depreciation of U. S. Government securities and guaranteed issues in System Open Market Account (photostated twice a month)

Mimeographed: (Since January 1, 1942)

Government security market memorandum (weekly)
Government security market reported transactions
(daily in active markets)
System Open Market Account (weekly)
Treasury financing
Maturity distribution of Government debt
Government security holdings of New York City banks
The President's Budget Message
War-time program for Treasury financing
Government security holdings by Government agencies and trust funds
Activities of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation during 1941
Summary of Treasury operations
Changes in Government security prices
Annual income on System Open Market Account holdings
Trip to Cleveland, Toledo, Cincinnati, and Pittsburgh
New York trip
Ownership of Government securities
Retirement of savings bonds
Meeting on war-time financing program
Estimated distribution of the U. S. Government debt
The Government security market and the System Account
Recent changes in the public debt
Estimated effect of March Treasury transactions on money market
Yields and prices of U. S. Government securities