

THE UNDER SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON

February 21, 1944

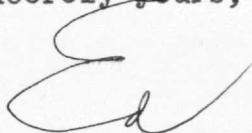

Dear Marriner,

I am sending herewith a special admission pass for the State Department which I hope will be a convenience to you.

When calling on the Secretary, the Assistant Secretaries or myself, I suggest that you use the entrance on 17th Street at New York Avenue because of its accessibility to the offices of these officials.

With kindest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

Acting Secretary of State

The Honorable
Marriner S. Eccles, Chairman
Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System
Washington, D.C.

February 25, 1944.

Dear Ed:

The impressive gold-rimmed card which you so thoughtfully and kindly sent me with your note of February 21 reposes in my billfold. While I don't have much, if any, occasion to invade the sacred precincts of the State Department, I know the card will impress my grandchildren when I show it to them. And I am honored to have it.

As I reflect upon it and upon the animated cartoon, which I greatly enjoyed, I am favorably impressed with the humanizing influence you are having upon your present staid environment.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Honorable E. R. Stettinius, Jr.,
Under Secretary of State,
Washington 25, D. C.

THE UNDER SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON

February 28, 1944

Dear Marriner,

Thank you so much for your kind note of the 25th. I greatly appreciate the sentiments expressed in the last paragraph.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

The Honorable
Marriner S. Eccles
Chairman, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System
Washington 25, D. C.
