

January 14, 1939.

My dear Senator Glass:

Because of the historic significance of the ceremony commemorating the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the signing of the Federal Reserve Act by President Wilson, I wished to have a photograph of the occasion, and obtained one in which you and Representative Steagall are standing with me before your bronze bas relief.

It occurred to me that you and Mr. Steagall might also like to have one of these photographs and, accordingly, I asked that two more of them be made. I am sending one to you in the hope that you might wish to have it among the mementoes of this important occasion.

Very sincerely yours,

Honorable Carter Glass,
United States Senate,
Washington, D. C.

Honorable Marriner S. Eccles,
Federal Reserve System,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Governor Eccles:

It was kind and thoughtful of you to send me the photograph relating to the ceremonial exercises on the twenty-fifth anniversary of the approval of the Federal Reserve Act. It is an excellent photograph and I shall be glad to preserve it.

Sincerely yours,

Carter Glass
