

January 15, 1937.

My dear Senator:

I have just learned with profound regret of your bereavement, and I am hastening to send you this note knowing that there is nothing which I or anyone else might say in alleviation, other than to let you know that in common with your host of friends, I share your grief.

Mrs. Eccles joins me in offering our deepest sympathy.

Sincerely yours,

Honorable William Gibbs McAdoo,
United States Senate,
Washington, D. C.
