

January 16, 1939.

Dear Henry:

Because of the historic significance of the ceremony commemorating the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the signing of the Federal Reserve Act by President Wilson, I wished to have a photograph of the occasion, and obtained one in which you and Senator Glass are standing with me before the bronze bas relief of the Senator.

It occurred to me that you and Senator Glass might also like to have one of these photographs and, accordingly, I asked that two more of them be made. I am sending one to you in the hope that you might wish to have it among the mementoes of this important occasion.

Very sincerely yours,

Honorable Henry B. Steagall,
