

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
WASHINGTON, D. C.

February 2, 1939

Hon. Marriner S. Eccles
Chairman, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System
Washington, D. C.

Dear Marriner:

I wish every citizen of the United States could read your radio speech of January 23.

With kind regards,

Sincerely your friend,

T. Alan Goldsborough

P

February 4, 1939.

Dear Alan:

This is to thank you for your note of February 2d and your gratifying reference to my recent radio address.

I have been meaning to write you a word of congratulation upon your appointment to the Federal bench, and I want to take this occasion to wish you the happiness and continued success which you have so richly earned in your years of public service. On your account I am glad that this new honor has come to you, but on my own account I must say that I am going to miss the un-failing help and sympathetic understanding which you have always given to me in our many discussions of problems and legislative matters that came before the Banking and Currency Committee.

I trust that I shall not be haled before you in your new capacity, but at the same time, I know that if this should befall me, I would be accorded the same fair treatment that I have always had at your hands.

With every good wish and kindest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

Honorable T. Alan Goldborough,
Washington, D. C.
