

November 13, 1944.

Dear Mr. Spence:

While I assumed that your reelection was happily a foregone conclusion, now that the votes are counted I want to take the occasion to express my own personal satisfaction that you are to continue in the House of Representatives and as Chairman of the Committee on Banking and Currency.

The elections, contrary to so many predictions, settled this question of chairmanships decisively, and I am especially pleased from the standpoint of the Federal Reserve System that you will carry on as you always have so fairly and understandingly in your important post.

Sincerely yours,

Honorable Brent Spence,
House of Representatives,
Washington 25, D. C.
