Dear Bob:

One of the most gratifying aspects of the elections from my standpoint was your great victory in being retained in the Senate for a fourth term.

I am particularly delighted because so long as I occupy this position nothing could be more reassuring than to know that you will continue as Chairman of the Senate Committee on Banking and Currency. From a national standpoint, it is certainly heartening that the public of your State gives this deserved evidence of its appreciation of your long and devoted public service in behalf of forward-looking and liberal Government in this country.

Sincerely yours,

Honorable Robert F. Wagner,
