

July 6, 1949.

Dear Senator:

The attached news letter written by Julius Klein came to my desk and it occurred to me that you might not have seen it so I am venturing to pass it along. Needless to say, I heartily agree with its comments about you and I think it is all the more significant coming from a former Government official who was very close to Herbert Hoover.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

Many thanks for sending me the copy of Julius Klein's newsletter. It was good of you to take the trouble.

Best wishes,

Faithfully,

Paul H. Douglas
