

February 19, 1951.

Honorable Everett M. Dirksen,
U. S. Senate,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator:

My secretary advised me that upon the request of your secretary she had sent you photostatic copies of several newspaper reports, editorials, and columns, relative to the current controversy between the Treasury and the Federal Reserve Board. I am glad to know that you are taking an interest in the matter. Thinking you may not have seen the full text of my statement before the Joint Committee on the Economic Report in its hearings on the President's Economic Program, and my Fortune article entitled, "The Defense of the Dollar", I am enclosing a copy of each herewith. You may find them helpful.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles.

Enclosures.

VE:dls