Dear Marriner:

It is my thought that you would like to see an editorial which appeared in the Cleveland Press on Monday of this week. The statement made is about as clear as anything I have read.

While it is unfortunate that the controversy has reached such proportions I am confident right will prevail.

Best wishes to you.

Sincerely yours,

Dear George:

I appreciated receiving your letter of February 14 enclosing an editorial from the Cleveland Press favorable to the Federal Reserve. It is an excellent statement and reflects what seems to be the general view of the press of the country.

With kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles.
