

RUDOLPH L. WEISSMAN
61 BROADWAY
NEW YORK CITY

October 2, 1941

Mr. Elliot Thurston,
Assistant to the Chairman,
Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Thurston:

Under separate cover I am forwarding a copy of a memorandum dealing briefly with group banking and the securities of group banks, which I trust you will find of interest.

If you have a copy of Mr. Eccles' testimony for the House Banking and Currency Committee, I shall greatly appreciate receiving it.

Sincerely yours,

Rudolph L. Weissman

Mr. Rudolph L. Weissman,
61 Broadway,
New York, New York.

Dear Mr. Weissman:

On behalf of the Chairman as well as myself, I wish to thank you for sending us copies of your memorandum on group banking.

Mr. Eccles was particularly interested in it and remarked that it had shed new light on the first securities picture which shows up very creditably.

I do not have copies of the testimony before the House Banking and Currency Committee, but I am enclosing a copy of a brief, prepared statement which the Chairman presented.

Sincerely yours,

Elliott Thurston,
Special Assistant to the Chairman.
