Mr. Marriner S. Eccles,
Chairman of the Federal Reserve Board,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

Would you be kind enough to send us a copy of the talk you delivered before the Senate Banking and Currency Committee at the end of last week wherein you pointed out that "inflation usually comes after a war . . . . ."

The press commented on this talk today, and we would appreciate receiving a copy of same.

Thanking you, we are,

Sincerely yours,
