June 3, 1946.

Mr. Emanuel A. Hacker,
15 North Princeton Circle,
Lynchburg, Virginia.

Dear Mr. Hacker:

With reference to your request of May 31, Chairman Eccles had no prepared statement on the financing of the public debt. This subject was brought up in the questioning which followed his statement on the British loan before the House Banking and Currency Committee.

Sincerely yours,

Elliott Thurston,
Assistant to the Chairman.
