Mr. Marriner Eccles,
Federal Reserve Board
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

I heartily approve the forthright statement made by you before the House Banking Committee on August 3rd, and vigorously applaud the manner in which you made it.

Thank you for remaining on the Federal Reserve Board that banking specifically, and the country at large, may have the benefit of your opinion and guidance.

Yours very truly,

President
