Hon. Marriner S. Eccles,
Federal Reserve Board,
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

LABOR, "The Official Washington National Weekly of the Standard Railroad Labor Organizations," had a story about you in this week's issue. I am sending you a marked copy.

I remember very well when we ran that first story about your speech before the bankers' meeting out in Utah. Naturally, it warmed our hearts. Ever since we have followed your career with deep interest.

Sincerely,

Manager.

Mr. Edward Keating, Manager,
Labor,
10 Independence Avenue,
Washington 4, D. C.

Dear Mr. Keating:

Mr. Eccles intended to thank you personally for your letter of August 16 enclosing a copy of Labor containing the article about him. In the last minute rush of getting away for a trip to the West, he did not have an opportunity to write to you and asked me particularly to thank you for your courtesy and your kindness.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) Elliott Thurston
