Mr. M. S. Eccles, Chairman
Federal Reserve Board
Washington. D.C.

Dear Sir:

There seems to be a great deal of fuss and feathers and astonishment at your reported ten points requested or suggested be done to control inflation

The bankers, Congress and big business better begin to take stock, take some losses and help set America straight lest calamity overtake us all.

I sincerely hope your suggestions will be given great consideration. They are the best I have heard in many a day.

Cordially yours

Charles O. Parks
