December 15, 1947.

Senator George A. Wilson,
United States Senate,
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Senator Wilson:

In response to the request in your letter of December 8, 1947, for a copy of my statement before the Senate Banking and Currency Committee on December 4, 1947, I regret to say that I do not have a copy because the statement was extemporaneous. It was, however, reported in the usual manner and the printed record has not yet become available. In the circumstances, I suggest that the Clerk of the Senate Committee may be of some assistance to you. In this connection I made a statement before the Joint Committee on the Economic Report on November 25, 1947, which had been prepared in advance and of which I am able to send you a copy, which is enclosed. I trust that this will be of some additional assistance to you.

Very sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.
