

January 12, 1948.

Miss Marguerite Barnett, Librarian,
Federal Reserve Bank of New York,
New York 45, New York.

Dear Miss Barnett:

Mr. Carpenter referred to me your request of January 9 for two copies of the statements by Chairman Eccles before the Joint Committee on the Economic Report on December 10, 1947, and I am accordingly enclosing them. You will note that the statement dealing with the conference with Secretary Snyder is stapled on the back.

As the New York Bank Library is on the special mailing list which I personally keep for copies of the Chairman's statements, two copies of this statement were mailed on December 10, marked for your attention, as are copies of all his statements which are mimeographed for distribution.

In view of the fact that on several occasions in the past, after having mailed copies to you, I have received a post card request from the Library, I am wondering if the copies are going astray at the Bank. I am calling this to your attention because I wanted you to know that your failure to receive copies is not due to an oversight in this office. If you have any suggestions as to how it might be better handled, I would be very glad to cooperate.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary to Mr. Thurston.
