Governor Marriner S. Eccles
Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

I should very much like to have a copy of your statement before the Joint Committee on the Economic Report on Tuesday, November 22. If the press reports of your views are correct, they seem to me to be remarkably long-headed ones. Thank you very much.

Very truly yours,

Roland I. Robinson
Professor of Banking

Mr. Roland I. Robinson,
Professor of Banking,
The School of Commerce,
Northwestern University,
Evanston, Illinois.

Dear Mr. Robinson:

I greatly appreciate receiving your letter of November 23 favorably commenting upon my recent testimony before the Subcommittee on Monetary, Credit and Fiscal Policies of the Joint Committee on the Economic Report. It is always encouraging to know that one's efforts are appreciated and approved, and I am glad that you, as a former member of the Board's staff, feel that I may have said something worth thinking about.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles.

Governor M. S. Eccles
Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

I should very much appreciate having 37
copies of your letter to the Douglas Committee on Credit Policy for use in my money and banking class.

It would be helpful if these could be sent to:

Professor Roland I. Robinson
Wieboldt Hall
Northwestern University
339 East Chicago Avenue
Chicago, Illinois.

Thank you very much for this and earlier favours.

Sincerely yours,

Roland I. Robinson

Professor Roland I. Robinson,
Wieboldt Hall,
Northwestern University,
339 East Chicago Avenue,
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Professor Robinson:

In accordance with your letter of March 10, addressed to Governor M. S. Eccles, I am forwarding to you herewith the 37 copies of Mr. Eccles' Statement and Supplementary Letter to the Douglas Committee on Credit Policy which you requested.

Mr. Eccles, of course, is very glad to send these and hopes that they will be helpful in your classroom -- he is flattered!

Sincerely yours,

Secretary to Mr. M. S. Eccles.
