Dear Sir:

1/26/51

As usual your suggestion in re the work hours and "no overtime pay" is so so and Americanism. Of course, it will be smeared by the present Administration and that Bosses, the C. S. O. A. F. of I, while Walter Reuther will efflude. But real Americans are for you whether or not you get the praise and acclaim which are yours.

Sincerely

Leon V. Almirall

THIS SIDE OF CARD IS FOR ADDRESS

Hon. Warren E. Eccles
Washington, D.C.

January 31, 1951.

Mr. Leon V. Almirall,
1181 Bellaire Street,
Denver, Colorado.

Dear Mr. Almirall:

It was very thoughtful of you to take time to write me about my testimony on January 25, before the Joint Committee on the Economic Report in its hearings on the President's Economic Program.

I always appreciate having the reactions of others, whether of approval or criticism, to my public utterances. I am glad to know that you approve of the suggestions I made in my statement before the Committee as reported in the newspapers. Thinking you may be interested in reading the entire text of my statement, I am enclosing a copy of it herewith.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles.

Mr. Marriner S. Eccles,
Board Of Governors,
of the
Federal Reserve System,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

Thank you very much for affording me the opportunity of reading your: "PREPAREDNESS AGAINST BOTH WAR AND INFLATION." I did so tonight with much interest and probably even greater appreciation of the character of the author. Such traits as those which afford the motivation for such a sane and logical exposition of facts, are so lacking in our Administration today as to have produced almost the debacle of America. To those of us who love America what we see all around us is most depressing. What could happen under the present circumstances if continued simply add to the depressive effect.

The effect of the bad example produced by Washington Solons is widespread with the result crime is rampant not only with adults but juveniles. There seems to be an utter disregard for Law and Order. Even judges are prone to mishandle justice.

While undoubtedly your wise counsel in this Address of yours is bound to be disregarded because this is not the aim of those in control it must nevertheless be of great satisfaction to you as it is to others of us, to see such evidence of moral and American courage displayed.

With kindest regards and best wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Leon V. Almirall.
