Hon. Marriner S. Eccles,
 Governor, Federal Reserve Board,
 Washington, D. C.

My dear Governor Eccles:

On February 12th the Ohio Bankers' Association will hold its annual Mid-Winter Meeting here in Columbus. We are anxious to obtain an outstanding speaker for this event and on behalf of the bankers of the state, I wish to extend to you a cordial invitation to address us.

The meeting begins with a luncheon and continues until mid-afternoon. Therefore, it would be possible for you to leave Washington on the evening of February 11th and be back at your office on the morning of February 13th. You will recall, of course, that February 12th, being Lincoln's Birthday, is a legal holiday.

Ordinarily this meeting attracts a crowd of from 500 to 600 representative Ohio bankers. However, if you consent to be with us, we shall be very happy to extend invitations to bankers from Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Kentucky, Indiana, Michigan and Illinois. This would increase our attendance largely and give you a most representative group from this section of the country.

May I express the hope that you will give this matter favorable consideration and advise us at your early convenience as to your ability to address us?

Sincerely yours,

President, Ohio Bankers' Association.

Hon. M. S. Eccles
Governor, Federal Reserve Board
Washington, D. C.

My dear Governor:

In order that we may make proper arrangements for your comfort on February 12th, will you be good enough to advise us in regard to your time of arrival? While I assume that you will come on from Washington and reach Columbus on the morning of February 12th, we should like to know this definitely.

Publicity | We also should like to have you send us a photograph of yourself, suitable for newspaper reproduction. If you will send us one print, we can have it rephotographed in order that the necessary number will be available.

It is our custom also to give to the Ohio newspapers a synopsis of the addresses delivered at our meeting if advance copy is available. We, therefore, should be pleased to have you mail to us either a copy of your address or a summary of what you intend to say.

We are receiving a large number of reservations both from Ohio and adjoining states and I am sure that you will have a fine audience.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. David M. Auch, Secretary,
Ohio Bankers Association,
Huntington Bank Building,
Columbus, Ohio.

Dear Mr. Auch:

I plan on leaving Washington on the evening of February 11th on the Pennsylvania Railroad at 6:45, arriving in Columbus on the morning of February 12th at 8:09.

As you requested in your letter of February 2d, I am enclosing herewith a photograph of myself suitable for newspaper reproduction. After it has served its purpose I will appreciate your returning it to me.

As far as my address is concerned, it will not be finished until Monday and I, therefore, will be unable to forward you a copy at this time but will be glad to bring an extra copy or so with me.

I am sorry this letter has been delayed getting to you, but I have waited to see if I couldn't possibly enclose a copy of my speech today.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Governor.
