

The Huntington National Bank
OF COLUMBUS
ORGANIZED 1866.

B. G. HUNTINGTON,

President

*Yours truly,
B. G. Huntington
President
1/15/35*

February 15, 1935.

Honorable M. H. Eccles, Governor,
Federal Reserve Board,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Eccles:

Thank you for your prompt answer to my telegram, and for agreeing that we may publish and distribute your address given before the Mid-Winter Meeting of the Ohio Bankers' Association.

no. | The pamphlet will be ready for distribution within twenty-four hours, I think, and I am instructing the proper persons here to send you copies of it. If for any purpose you would like to have additional copies, let us know, and we will be glad to supply your needs.

I hope the manner in which it is being sent out will meet with your approval. If you have any suggestions of persons or concerns to whom you would like to have us send copies of the address, we will also be glad to take care of that for you.

Thanks again for the privilege given to us.

Yours sincerely,

BGH:HS

President

February 21, 1935.

Mr. B. G. Huntington, President,
The Huntington National Bank,
Columbus, Ohio.

Dear Mr. Huntington:

I wish to thank you for your letter of February 15th, together with the pamphlet you have published covering my address given before the Ohio Bankers Association on February 12th. I was glad to grant you the privilege of printing this speech and to have you distribute it among the customers and friends of your institution.

I greatly appreciate and wish to thank you for your offer to furnish me with as many additional copies of the pamphlet as I might desire. However, where requests are made here for copies of the speech we are sending it out in the form in which it appeared in the Congressional Record of February 14th.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Governor.

MSE:VE:sb