

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF BOSTON

ROY A. YOUNG
GOVERNOR

Hon. Marriner S. Eccles, Governor
Federal Reserve Board
Washington, D. C.

Dear Governor Eccles:

We are all very happy to know that you are coming to Boston on Saturday, February 16, 1935.

When a member of the Board visits us in Boston, it has been the practice of Mr. Curtiss and myself to invite a group of Boston bankers (about thirty) to an informal luncheon at one of the clubs. A round table talk is indulged in but there are no set speeches. We hope you will permit us to do this for you.

Also, it would give Mrs. Young and myself great pleasure to have you as our house guest while you are in Boston.

With warm regards, I am

Yours respectfully,

R. A. Young

15-4
December tenth
1 9 3 4

December 11, 1934.

Mr. Roy A. Young, Governor,
Federal Reserve Bank of Boston,
Boston, Massachusetts.

Dear Governor Young:

I am glad to know that you all are pleased that I will be coming to Boston in February. I appreciate your thoughtfulness regarding the round table talk at an informal luncheon of Boston bankers but I am afraid that my plans will not permit such an arrangement on this trip to Boston.

Since making the arrangement to speak in Boston the evening of February 16th, Mr. Creighton has been in my office to see if I could give a short talk at a luncheon on Friday, the 15th. I have advised Mr. Creighton that I will be glad to accept his invitation if it can be arranged so that the February 16th evening appointment can be changed to February 15th. I have not yet heard from Mr. Creighton as to whether or not he has been able to satisfactorily arrange this.

I greatly appreciate the thoughtfulness of you and Mrs. Young in suggesting that I stay at your house during my contemplated visit to your city in February. I am sure that I would find it very pleasant and comfortable, but at present I plan to get into Boston in the morning and return to New York on a late evening train that same day. I am sorry that it will not be possible for me to avail myself of your kindness.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

P. S.

If the luncheon which Mr. Creighton has suggested for the 15th is not arranged, I will be glad to accept your invitation.