Mr. Marriner S. Eccles, Governor
The Federal Reserve Board
Washington, D.C.

My dear Mr. Eccles:

I have heard and seen very interesting reports of your talk at the Harvard Club in New York this week. Is it possible for me to secure a copy of your address?

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "F. E. Fike". The letters are fluid and connected, with a prominent loop at the end of the last name.

Mr. F. E. Fike,
45 Pinehurst Avenue,
New York, New York.

Dear Mr. Fike:

I appreciate your advising me that you were interested in my speech before the Harvard Business School Club of New York.

I am sorry that I am unable to comply with your request for a copy of my speech as I had only the one copy which I had marked up.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Governor.
