

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE
NATIONAL PRESS BUILDING
WASHINGTON

JAMES A. FARLEY
CHAIRMAN

June 12, 1936.

Honorable Marriner Eccles,
Chairman,
Board of Governors,
Federal Reserve Bank Board,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

I am very anxious to secure a copy of the speech recently delivered by you at New Orleans, as I am desirous of sending it to Congressman John J. Delaney, of New York, for his information.

I have already written the congressman concerning the speech, so you might, if you care to, forward a copy of the speech direct to him.

Let me thank you in anticipation of your usual courtesy and co-operation.

Sincerely yours,

Paul C. Aiken
Paul C. Aiken.

Could this be sent directly to the Congressman, please?

June 13, 1936.

My dear Congressman:

In accordance with the request of Mr. Paul C. Aiken of the Democratic National Committee, I am enclosing a copy of the address which I made before the American Bankers Association Convention in New Orleans last November.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.

Honorable John J. Delaney,
House of Representatives,
Washington, D. C.
