Dear Mr. Ecoles:

I want to ~~tell~~ you how much I appreciate the copy of your address which your secretary was kind enough to give me in New Orleans. All the way ~~north~~ it was in the hands of some banker who was reading it as I did, with much pleasure.

When a young man I was University Extension lecturer for the Department of History of the University of Chicago. When the president is re-nominated I want to go on the stump for you any where you wish to send me.

With kind regards and best wishes, I am

Yours truly,

H. L. Trimble, President

Mr. H. L. Trimble, President,
The Citizens National Bank,

My dear Mr. Trimble:

I am in receipt of your letter of November 30th, and am glad to know that you and the other bankers enjoyed reading the copy of the address which I made before the American Bankers Association on November 14th.

However, since the copy which you received in New Orleans was merely the press release on the speech given out by the Association, I am enclosing a stenographic report of the address as taken down by the convention's reporter.

Very truly yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.

Dear Sir:

I have your favor of December 5 with enclosure, copy of your address to the American Bankers' Association at New Orleans. I shall keep this in my files for future reference. It is a very instructive address and has done much good.

I was wondering if it was not time for the friends of the President to begin broadcasting systematically in his interest. I have had some experience over the radio and if you will have your office furnish me material from time to time I will be glad to do my part.

I will be in Louisville the evenings of December 25, 26 and 27 and if you can have Mr. McEntire, Secretary to the President to arrange with the Radio station of the Courier Journal and Louisville Times I will be glad to serve you.

With kind regards, I am

Yours truly,

Dear Mr. Trimble:

I have your letter of December 9th and appreciate your comments on my recent address to the American Bankers association at New Orleans.

I thoroughly agree with you that the friends of the President should begin broadcasting systematically to the country his side of the case since for considerable time we have been hearing chiefly only the other side. My office will be glad to furnish you at any time all the factual material accessible to us which might be of value to you. In this connection, I thought you might be interested in seeing a recent article by Stuart Chase, a copy of which I am enclosing.

I note that you forwarded a copy of your letter to Mr. McIntyre, Assistant Secretary to the President. I would suggest that you would have to take up direct with Mr. McIntyre the matter of the broadcast which you have in mind. Of course, I do not know that he could arrange for it, but in any case, I cannot do so.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.
