Dear Mr. Eccles:

If there is available a copy of your address which you made before the A.B.A., Convention in New Orleans, I should be pleased to have a copy. It was my pleasure to hear you present this address and I enjoyed it very much, and I am further interested in the address to the extent that I would like to read it.

Thanking you and with best wishes, I am

Yours very truly,

H. G. Huddleston

Mr. H. G. Huddleston, Secretary,
Tennessee Bankers Association,
812 American Trust Building,
Nashville, Tennessee.

My dear Mr. Huddleston:

I appreciate very much your letter of December
2d and am glad to know that you enjoyed my address to the American Bankers Association in New Orleans on November 14th.

In accordance with your request, I am enclosing a copy of the talk as taken down by the convention's reporter.

Very truly yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.
