Dear Mr. Eccles:-

I attended the A. B. A. Convention at New Orleans, and was one of the Bankers who came to the stage after your address, and told you I liked it. Since my return from that trip I have tried to find your speech in print but have been able to read only parts of it, I think just such parts as the paper or magazine wanted to print. I have just noticed in the "Kiplinger Washington Letter" that a copy of the speech, I trust in full, can be obtained by writing your office. If there are any extra copies I would like a few so that I can show them to a few who have so soon forgotten what President Roosevelt did for banking fraternity in 1933. Thanking you, I am
