M. S. Eccles, Chairman,
The Federal Reserve Board,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Eccles:

I am most grateful to you for sending me the copies of the Summary of Statements before the House Committee and the Statement before the Senate Committee in connection with the Banking Law of 1935; also the copy of your remarks made before the American Bankers Association. I shall take these with me and read them on the boat, since I sail for France on Saturday.

It was a great pleasure to me to meet you and to have such an interesting talk with you. I hope we may meet soon again.

If at any time I can assist you with information with respect to the economic or financial situation on the Continent, I hope you will not fail to write me. My address is care of Morgan & Cie, 14 Place Vendome, Paris.

Yours most sincerely,
