

WHARTON SCHOOL OF
FINANCE AND COMMERCE

May 1, 1936

Honorable Marriner S. Eccles
Chairman, Board of Governors
Federal Reserve System
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

In further reference to my previous letters to you, I am enclosing a copy of the final program for the Wharton Institute sessions on May 8 and 9.

As I told you previously, we hope that you will be able to attend some of the other sessions in addition to the one at which you are to speak. In order that appropriate arrangements may be made, I should appreciate it very much if you would let me know during the next two or three days whether you are planning to be present at either of the luncheon sessions. We are counting on your being present at the banquet on Friday night.

Once again assuring you of my personal pleasure in the fact that you are able to participate in the program and with renewed thanks for your cooperation, I remain

Very sincerely yours,

F. Cyril James

My dear Mr. James:

Permit me to thank you for your letter of May 1st enclosing a copy of the final program for the Wharton Institute sessions on May 8th and 9th.

Although I would like very much to attend some of the other sessions of the Institute, I regret that I will be unable to be present at anything except the banquet because of previous engagements here.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.

Hon. Marriner S. Eccles, President,
Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Governor Eccles:

Now that the Wharton Institute is all over and comparative peace reigns in these halls again I want to write and thank you for your participation.
May I also add my own personal pleasure at meeting
you and tell you that I very much enjoyed our discussion after the dinner meeting was over.

With renewed thanks and best personal wishes, I remain

Very sincerely yours,

Mr. Marriner S. Eccles, Chairman
Board of Governors
Federal Reserve System
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Eccles:

I want to tell you how very grateful the faculty and I are for your sincere and frank presentation at the Wharton Institute on Friday night. We all enjoyed and appreciated it tremendously and also the discussion which followed.

It was good of you to take the time in view of the pressure under which you are working and better still to speak as directly and candidly and intelligently as you did.

Our program would have been deficient without your constructive presentation.

I hope you were not too tired after speaking Friday night and an early start for Princeton.

Sincerely and gratefully yours,

Joseph H. Willits

P.S. If you will let us pay your expenses we will be very happy to do so.

My dear Mr. Willits:

I was pleased to receive your letter of May 14th relative to my recent address before the Wharton Institute. I enjoyed meeting you and other members of your faculty, as well as many of the alumni.

I appreciate your offer to pay the expenses incurred in connection with my trip to New York for the purpose of making the address, but inasmuch as you paid for the hotel room and dinner, the balance of my expense was so small that I prefer not to bill you for it.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.
