Mr. W. J. O'Connor,
Salt Lake City, Utah.

Dear Bill:

The night I met with the group at the Alta Club in Salt Lake when I was recently in Utah in an effort to answer the monetary and economic questions which they propounded, you suggested that I should write a pamphlet outlining my general philosophy of the recovery program as I discussed it informally before that group.

I have not undertaken to do that as I believe I have covered my views on the subject in several speeches which I have made and I am, therefore, enclosing copies of one address I made before the American Bankers Association last November and one which I made before the Wharton Institute in New York last week.

If you are interested in having additional copies, I will be glad to send them on to you.

With kindest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.

UTAH DEPARTMENT
SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH

OFFICE OF
W. J. O'CONNOR
MANAGER

May 26th. 1936.

Hon. Marriner S. Eccles,
Chairman, Federal Reserve System,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Marriner:

Thanks for your letter of May 14th., with the copies of your talks. These embrace substantially many of the things that you told us at our Alta Club dinner, and I would like you to send me 100 copies of each of these speeches. Please also send me a bill for preparing and mailing these.

I want to distribute these among some of my business friends here, whom I know will be very much interested in receiving them, and who, despite their politics, are broad-minded enough to recognize such a clear, concise explanation of what the administration has been endeavoring to do, as you have set forth.

During the past few months there has been a decided lull among my Republican friends in their condemnation of President Roosevelt, and I think that many of them are beginning to see the necessity and the wisdom of most of the administration policies.

We are having delightful weather here now, and everybody is thinking and talking fishing, and getting ready to spend Decoration Day up around Yellowstone Park. I hope you get out this summer for some fishing and a rest up in that vicinity.

Again many thanks for your thoughtfulness in remembering my request.

Kind personal regards.

Sincerely,

June 3, 1936.

Mr. W. J. O'Connor, Manager,

Very truly yours,

Secretary to Mr. M. S. Eccles.
