November 23, 1936

Hon. Marriner S. Eccles
Chairman of the Board of Governors
Federal Reserve System
Washington, D. C.

My dear Gov. Eccles:

In response to your request, through Mr. Bucklin, I am sending you today, under separate cover, by registered mail, all the copies of your address to the Seventh New England Bank Management Conference as received from the stenotypist, and also the stenotype tape on which your remarks were recorded.

As you know, it is our plan to publish the entire proceedings of the Conference for distribution to the banks of the New England states. To that end, we shall appreciate it if you will, at your earliest convenience, make such changes in the transcript of your remarks as you desire and return the corrected copy to us for incorporation in the published proceedings.

May I add that ever since the hour of your address we have been in daily receipt of requests for copies. We have, of course, responded to all these requests with the statement that no copies would be available until you had placed in our hands corrected and authorized transcript of your remarks.

May I take this occasion to express again our thanks for your participation in the proceedings of this year's New England Bank Management Conference.

I am

Sincerely yours,

Dudley Harmon
Executive Vice-President

November 27, 1936.

Mr. Dudley Harmon,
Executive Vice President,
New England Council,
Statler Building,
Boston, Massachusetts.

My dear Mr. Harmon:

This is to acknowledge your letter of November 23d and to thank you for sending me the copies of my extemporaneous talk before the 7th New England Bank Management Conferenc. At the earliest opportunity I shall go over the manuscript. I felt afterward that what I said was very disjointed and I was not at all satisfied, so that I am not at all certain that these remarks which were intended to be off the record are suitable for publication in any form. However, I shall advise you as promptly as possible.

I wish to thank you again for sending me the transcripts as well as the stenotype, and I would appreciate it if you would convey my thanks also to Mr. Pucklin. I was very glad to have the privilege of appearing before the Conference. My only regret is that my own remarks were not all that I would have wished to have them.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.
