

FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK BOARD
WASHINGTON

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK SYSTEM

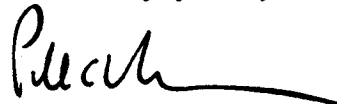

November 18, 1936

My dear Marriner:

Mr. Walter H. Neaves, President of our Boston bank, was in yesterday and told me he attended the meeting of the New England Banking Council on Friday, November 13th. He liked very much the address which you made, and particularly the last fifteen minutes of it. He stated that your talk made a profound impression among those present, and he has heard a great deal of favorable comment on it. This, by way of information. If you happen to have a copy, will you send one along to me.

Regards.

Very sincerely yours,

Preston Delano

Honorable Marriner S. Eccles,
Chairman, Board of Governors,
Federal Reserve Board,
Washington, D.C.

My dear Preston:

This is to acknowledge with thanks your note of November 18th. I was not feeling too well at the time and was not altogether satisfied with the talk I gave in Boston, so that it is all the more reassuring to know of the favorable comment.

I did not prepare a speech and asked that what I said be considered off the record so that I have no copy which I can send along to you.

With kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

Honorable Preston Delano, Governor,
Federal Home Loan Bank Board,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Preston:

Since your note of November 21st, I have received a copy, taken down by stenotype, of the extemporaneous talk which I gave in Boston on November 13th and I am enclosing a copy which has been slightly revised with a view to making it available to some of my friends, or to those in the banking and business community who are interested in the problems discussed.

I take it that your restoration is complete and sustained and I hope to have further visible proof thereof at the earliest opportunity.

With kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

Honorable Preston Delano, Governor,
Federal Home Loan Bank Board,
Washington, D. C.
