Mr. Theodore M. Knappen,
1357 Connecticut Avenue,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Knappen:

I am sorry to have been delayed in sending you a copy of the speech to which I referred. I am enclosing it herewith. As I think I told you, this was intended to be off the record, but was taken down by stenotype and has been slightly revised so that it may be made public.

I trust that this will be of some value to you.

Very truly yours,

Elliott Thurston,
Special Assistant to the Chairman.
