Governor M. S. Eccles, Head
Federal Reserve System of the United States
Washington, D. C.

My dear Governor Eccles:

I have read your speech several times that was delivered in New England before the New England Bank Management Council in Boston (that is, the "off-the-record" speech), and like it very much, because it is so much to the point.

Will you give me permission to tell the substance of it in one of my forthcoming books; and also will you give me permission to use it in toto in a second forthcoming book of readings on Economics? I am sure it will be satisfactory with you for me to do this, but I like to get permission in advance nevertheless. I shall give you full credit.

Thanking you in advance.

Cordially,

Henry F. White
Head of Department

Dear Mr. White:

Chairman Eccles has requested me to acknowledge your letter to him of February 23d and to say that of course you are at liberty to make such use of his recent speech before the New England Council in Boston as you deem appropriate. He appreciates your courtesy in writing for permission.

Very truly yours,

Elliott Thurston,
Special Assistant to the Chairman.
