Hon. Marriner S. Eccles, Chairman,
Board of Governors,
Federal Reserve System,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Eccles:

I would appreciate it if you will let me know just as soon as possible on what train you expect to arrive in Chicago for our annual meeting, in order that we may make the necessary arrangements for your room reservation.

We hope you will be comfortable and enjoy your stay at our meeting.

Looking forward to having you with us, I am

Very sincerely,

December 3, 1937.

Mr. W. R. Ogg, Secretary,
American Farm Bureau Federation,
58 East Washington Street,
Chicago, Illinois.

My dear Mr. Ogg:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of November 30th addressed to Mr. Marriner S. Eccles.

Mr. Eccles has asked me to advise you that as it is very uncertain as to just what time he will be able to leave Washington, you need not go to the trouble of making a room reservation for him.

He would, however, appreciate your advising him the time and place at which his address is to take place.

Very truly yours,

Secretary to Mr. M. S. Eccles.
