Dear Mr. Eccles:

According to information received here today from Atlantic City, you are scheduled to speak on Friday before the New Jersey Bankers Association. As the New York correspondent of the Financial Times of London, a morning paper, I should like very much to get a copy of your speech so that I could cable it to London on Friday for publication there on Saturday morning. If advance copies are being mailed to correspondents, I should very much appreciate receiving one.

Sincerely yours,

Richard L. Barnum
