Dear Mr. Eccles;

For several years, our Research Division was active during campaigns. Since the last campaign, our staff has been collecting data of public interest with which to aid our public speakers.

It was reported in the New York Times of May 14th, 1938, that you delivered an address at the thirty-eighth annual convention of the New Jersey Bankers Association, on "The Current Business and Economic Outlook". We believe that this address will be of interest and of assistance to our speakers. Therefore, will you please send us a copy of the address?

We are very anxious to receive copies of all your addresses. Inasmuch as most releases to the press are printed only in part, we will be grateful if you put us on your press mailing list.

If our staff can ever be of any assistance to you, please call on us.

Very truly yours,

Louis E. Fine

Brooklyn, New York.

Dear Mr. Fine:

In accordance with your letter of May 19th addressed to Chairman Eccles, I take pleasure in enclosing a copy of his recent address before the New Jersey Bankers Association and in placing your name on the list to receive future releases of this character.

Very truly yours,

Elliott Hurston,
Special Assistant to the Chairman.
