

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
WASHINGTON

December 2, 1938.

Dear Marriner:

From the accounts I have seen in the newspapers of your speech it was superb. Moreover, it was a timely utterance. I could not get the full flavor of it from the brief accounts I saw and would, therefore, be greatly pleased if you would send me a complete copy of the text.

With warm regards,

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "William A. Rugg". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned to the right of the typed name "Sincerely yours,".

Dear Mr. Attorney General:

Your very thoughtful and encouraging note of December 2d with reference to my recent talk before the New York Chapter of the American Institute of Banking is deeply appreciated.

I am glad to enclose a copy of the full text which, as you point out, was necessarily dealt with in a fragmentary way in the newspapers.

With kindest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.

Honorable Homer S. Cummings,
