

THE NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCE

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $5,500,000.00

HOUSTON, TEXAS

13 December 1938

A. D. SIMPSON,
PRESIDENT

Hon. Marriner Eccles, Chairman,
Federal Reserve Bank,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Eccles:

In a letter to me yesterday our Chairman, Mr. Jones, commented so favorably about a speech you made before the American Bankers Association there, as I missed the copy of the AMERICAN BANKER which carried it, I should greatly appreciate your sending me a copy.

With all good wishes, I am,

Sincerely,

ADS/C

A. D. Simpson
President.

December 17, 1938.

Mr. A. D. Simpson, President,
The National Bank of Commerce,
Houston, Texas.

My dear Mr. Simpson:

Your letter of December 13th was particularly interesting to me because of the favorable comment you had received from Mr. Jones with regard to my recent speech in New York. In accordance with your request, I take pleasure in enclosing a copy of the text.

Permit me to reciprocate most heartily your good wishes.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.

enclosure

ET:b