Mr. Elliott Thurston
Special Assistant to the Chairman
Federal Reserve Board
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Thurston:

Confirming our recent conference in your office, the writer trusts that it may be convenient for Chairman Eccles, Governor Draper, or some other member of the Federal Reserve Board to address a luncheon to be arranged in their honor under the auspices of The Economic Club of Detroit, upon which occasion they would be the only speaker on a subject of current economic interest to the more than 900 business and professional men comprised within our membership.

The important part which Detroit plays as a barometer of the general economic well-being of the entire United States we believe will become increasingly apparent to you if you and your associates can arrange to come more intimately in touch with the various industrial and financial interests which center here.

Enclosed herewith we take pleasure in sending you a copy of our last year's printed Progress Report supplementing the list of speakers who have thus favored us during the past year.

Any suggestions which you may have from time to time along these lines will be greatly appreciated.

Very gratefully yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Allen B. Crow". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, looping initial "A" and a long, sweeping underline.

Allen B. Crow,
President

Mr. Allen B. Crow, President,
The Economic Club of Detroit,
6460 Kercheval Avenue,
Detroit, Michigan.

My dear Mr. Crow:

This is to thank you for your letter of May 24, enclosing a copy of your Progress Report of last year as well as the typical programs.

It is evident that you gathered together a most representative group and I hope that the occasion may present itself when, as you suggest, Chairman Eccles, Mr. Draper or some other member of the Board may take advantage of the opportunity to meet with you.

It was a pleasure to talk with you when you were in Washington and I hope that you will stop in when you are here again.

Very sincerely yours,

Elliott Thurston,
Special Assistant to the Chairman.
