

The Economic Club
of Detroit

6460 Kercheval Avenue
March 15, 1939

Hon. Marriner S. Eccles, Chairman
Board of Governors, Federal Reserve System
Washington, D. C.

My dear Chairman Eccles:

Attached herewith are some additional clippings which have come to the writer's attention concerning your very notable address as recently given under the auspices of The Economic Club of Detroit.

We are continuing to hear very favorable comments from the friends whom you made personally and for the principles which you so ably set forth on that occasion.

Very gratefully yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Allen B. Crow', written over a large, circular scribble.

Allen B. Crow,
President

ABC:BD
Encs.

March 18, 1939.

Dear Mr. Crow:

This is to thank you for your letter of March 15 enclosing additional clippings with reference to my recent talk before The Economic Club of Detroit.

It is very gratifying to hear of the favorable comments, and I wanted you to know that I appreciate your courtesy and your thoughtfulness in sending me these further clippings.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Allen B. Crow, President,
The Economic Club of Detroit,
6460 Kercheval Avenue,
Detroit, Michigan.

ET:b